

Your New York Custom Packaging People

Located in the Bronx but serving the entire New York region, Lodner Printing takes pride in our quality custom packaging, printing and die cutting, tailored to suit the needs of businesses great and small. Our custom retail packaging offerings run the gamut from simple blister cards for products to pop displays for retail, to almost any size and shape of folding carton.

Our attention to detail and dedication to our craft have helped make Lodner a leading Bronx paper box manufacturer. We hope to become your solution for custom packaging in NYC.

Family owned for over 25 years, Lodner Printing has a long-established reputation manufacturing and printing folding cartons and blister cards for New York and New Jersey. However, businesses also turn to us for custom printing and die cutting needs as versatile as bakery packaging, cardboard brochure holders and countertop displays. Our long-standing printing and die cutting expertise ensures a quality finished product for your custom packaging or cardboard display.
